

“I suppose a stallion’s reputation is very, very hard earned. The ones who are the most attractive are the ones who get sprinter/milers because that leaves a lot of people happy – it leaves commercial breeders very happy and it leaves the new owner happy”

Jim Bolger – Irish breeder and trainer of Derby winner New Approach and that stallion’s Gr1 Guineas winning sons Dawn Approach and Mac Swiney (quoted from TDN, 2 June ’21)
